REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

"For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty." Psa. 74: 20.

Missionary Work was God's plan from the ages — the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (Rev. 13:8.) God's first gift noted in the Bible was not to the inhabitants of heaven, but to man on earth in a foreign country. (Mark 16: 15, 1 John 3: 16.)

The last gift that Christ will receive will be the converted kingdom of our Lord. (Rev. 11: 5-7. "Who will go for us?" Isa. 6:8.)

In this twentieth century of Christian history there should be no unoccupied fields. Yet after nineteen hundred years with our great churches, an open Bible, and boundless wealth, we are so faithless there are today one billion and sixty millions of heathens on earth who have never yet heard of Jesus Christ. There are still scores of unoccupied fields, countries and provinces untouched by missionaries. Let us gird up our loins. Let us awake to righteousness. Let us stir ourselves. Let us move forward in the purpose of God like giants, knowing no defeat, disdaining every opposing force of hell, confident in Christ, who has never lost a battle. Oh, the gospel of Christ! This story of the lowly Nazerene will gleam like a diamond in those heathen lands if we carry it in the power of God. We who have been entrusted with the precious Word of God, the gospel message, have a responsibility which is a matter of life and death to millions of souls. Then let us move forward.

We as a committee recommend that Home Missions also be made prominent in new fields in our own and other States. Make this the greatest year that we have known for Home and Foreign Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. M. E. Virden,
M. S. Paramore,
W. R. Crow, Committee.

Motion carried to adopt report. The General Superintendent then made explanation of the needs of the missionaries, especially in South Africa. He urged the conference to help increase the appropriations to the missionaries by increasing our own contributions. More missionaries are to be sent, and it is our duty to send them. It is also the duty of the whole church to see that the missionaries get an adequate support. It is necessary to give more or quit the business.

Bros. Godwin, Crow, Medford and others made remarks along this line.

Bro. King then made report concerning the organization of new conferences. He stated that there are now sixteen annual conferences, with prospect of organization of others.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXAMINATION.

We, your Committee on Examination, submit the following report: For ordination — J. G. Sewell, W. T. Merritt. For license to preach: Mrs. Edith Sutton, W. R. Jarvis, Avery Braswell.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

We, your Committee on Memoirs, submit the following report:

While we sorrow not nor weep as those who have no hope, for our brethren or sisters who have fallen asleep (1 Thess. 4: 13, 14; Jer. 22: 10), we find it our duty to express our deepest sympathy for the family of our dear Brother P. F. Little, who was so suddenly taken from us last Spring. He was a faithful worker in the cause of the Lord, and he has been very much missed in our midst. He was faithful to attend the annual conferences and render a good report. May God bless his dear family who have survived him.

We also would not forget to express our heartfelt sympathy for the dear husband of our dear Sister Annie Cotton Burnette, who almost like Elijah of old stepped into a chariot of fire and went home to heaven, on the way to the Falcon Camp meeting last August. She was so well known throughout the entire country, and her good clean life so much appreciated, that the dear saints have erected, on the spot where she took her departure, a monument to her memory. We trust that her dear husband will endeavor to live the life as true and faithful as she, that they may live together again when the sorrows of this old earth are past.
